HBCU/MI ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND INNOVATION

Mission:

*The HBCU Entrepreneurship and Innovation initiative aims to assist Historically Black Colleges and Universities in developing a comprehensive entrepreneurship and innovation curriculum that is particularly relevant in preparing young men and women to develop an entrepreneurial mindset and become leaders and entrepreneurs. This initiative brings together HBCU presidents/chancellors along with business, foundation, entrepreneurial, government, military, and other leaders to focus on the advancement of innovation ecosystem at HBCUs. Each year, the program selects a special theme to support HBCUs. Students who have participated in the Entrepreneurship and Innovation program have said that it was the best experience they had in their entire academic life.

Activities:

HBCU/MI Entrepreneurship and Innovation Program has five components:

First: HBCU/MI Entrepreneurship and Innovation Business Plan Competition

Each year, the participating schools conduct internal competitions on Business Plan Development and Presentation. The winner of each school's internal competition comes to Atlanta for the national competition. The winner of the national competition competes in the international competitions. The program provides entrepreneurial opportunities and experiences to students and helps them to look at the big picture and apply all their conceptual & theoretical knowledge in a fast-paced business environment.

Second: Deans Seminar on Entrepreneurship and Innovation

As an integral part of the program, HBCU/MI Entrepreneurship and Innovation will conduct Dean/Faculty Development Programs for HBCU/MI deans and select faculty members. Each year business school deans and select faculty members are invited to Atlanta for an intensive seminar conducted by the leading entrepreneurship scholars and practitioners from around the country. The objective is to infuse entrepreneurship into the curriculums of HBCU/MIs.

Third: National Presidential Policy Forum

The Forum aims to get academic, business, foundation, entrepreneurial, government, and other leaders involved in the minority entrepreneurship education issues and encourage them to take an active role in preparing African American and other minority young men and women to become entrepreneurs.

Fourth: Entrepreneurs Training and Networking

A special group of entrepreneurs (including veterans owned businesses) will be invited to join this historic program. This will be an excellent opportunity for them to network with top level leaders from corporations, government, military, academic, and other areas to promote their business. There will be special training sessions for them as well to enhance their knowledge on how to become successful entrepreneurs. All student participants will be able to interact with this group and gain real life feedback on entrepreneurship.

Fifth: HBCU Recruitment Fair

Based on the level of sponsorship, Senior HR and other Executives from major corporations will be invited to meet with over 200 top students from many HBCU/MI/MIs. Executives will receive all participating student resumes in advance, and they will be able to meet the selected students for breakfast on Friday morning of the program week. Executives will then be able to watch the students in action as they present their business plans and respond to questions from the judges.
